

WILLIAM BIWER

whereiputstuff.com

ABOUT William Biwer is a graphical problem solver currently residing in the Midwest. Passionate and dedicated, he is always looking for exciting ventures to embark on and new problems to solve. He is seeking opportunities large, small, collaborative or freelance.

EMPLOYMENT February 2009 - present: MarketingLab
Position: Interactive Designer / Art Director
Create interactive solutions utilizing web, video and print. Use clients current brand to develop new and innovative in-store, direct mail and internet campaigns.

August 2009 - present: Terra Firma Clothing
Position: Co-owner / CCO
Handle all design related work. Including but not limited to advertising, web, apparel and print. Day to day business management and online order fulfilling.

January 2008 - October 2008: Voila! Media Group
Position: Web Designer
Design, develop and maintain websites for a broad customer base. Working with businesses one on one to help design websites that relate directly to customer needs.

June 2005 - January 2007: Sefar Printing Solutions, Inc.
Position: Design Intern
In-house designer focusing on growing the existing brand by assisting with and creating projects relating to print, web, signage and video.

June 2006 - present: Freelance
Creating and collaborating on projects for print, web and video.

SKILL SET Adobe Illustrator, Photoshop, InDesign, Dreamweaver, After Effects, Premiere
HTML, CSS and Basic knowledge of Javascript and PHP

HIGHLIGHTS Second place tradeshow booth design at SGIA 2006
(Las Vegas, NV)

“Most Likely to Become a Product” award for Illuminated Doorknob invention

EDUCATION University of Wisconsin-Stout: 2002 - 2007
Bachelor of Fine Arts:
Concentration: Graphic Design & Multimedia Design